

MRS. HILTON UP AGAIN

Case Is Now Before the Supreme Court.

BUSY FEBRUARY TERM

Arthur Brown's Petition for Writ of Prohibition.

Young Attorneys Admitted to Practice—Fred Engle's Appeal Dismissed.

The February term of the Supreme court opened yesterday and a large amount of business was transacted. Mr. S. Sanborn of this county and William S. Willis of Wasatch county were admitted to the bar of the State by the committee of bar examiners. John C. Burnham, formerly attorney of Kentucky, but now of this city, was admitted to the bar upon motion of E. B. Critchlow.

The petition of Arthur Brown to secure a writ of prohibition against Judge Brown to prevent further proceedings in the case against him for adultery was denied under advisement by the Supreme Justices.

The petition of Mrs. Annie F. A. Hilton asking for a writ of mandate against District Judge Hall to compel him to confirm the report of the commissioners appointed to set apart her interest in the estate of Dr. John Park, deceased, was allowed and returnable on February 15th at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The report of the commissioners was filed on May 14, 1903, in pursuance with an opinion rendered by the Supreme court, which held that Mrs. Hilton was the lawful widow of Dr. Park and entitled to a one-third interest in his estate. In Hilton states in her petition that she has through her counsel, on three great occasions requested Judge Hall to confirm the report, but that he has failed to do so. The petition in further states:

"That there is no considerable amount of work to be done in passing and deciding said matter. That said W. C. Hall, judge of said court, has up to date hereof failed and refused to pass upon, confirm, modify or set aside said report of said commissioners or take any action therein."

"Plaintiff further avers that the defendant refused to act, pass upon or decide upon said report of said commissioners as aforesaid, is unreasonable and unnecessary, and is a denial of plaintiff's right to have possession of and enjoy her property, which the law gives to her and hinders and prevents the distribution to her of her lawfully due."

The appeal in the case of the State vs. Fred Engle, appellant, was dismissed upon motion of Attorney-General Gordon, who stated that the defendant had failed to file a transcript.

The case of the State vs. D. H. Davis and Thomas Rose, appellants, was submitted upon briefs and taken under advisement.

The only case argued and submitted was that of George C. Whitmore vs. Pleasant Valley Coal company et al., which was appealed by the plaintiff from the District court in Carbon county.

JUDGMENT RENDERED AGAINST EMILY P. RALEIGH

Judge Hall yesterday rendered a decision in the consolidated cases of Emily P. Raleigh vs. Caroline C. R. Raleigh et al., and the Mutual Investment company vs. Emily P. Raleigh. It is ordered that the Mutual Investment company have judgment as prayed for in the answer and counter-claim in the consolidated case. All adverse claims of Emily P. Raleigh, Caroline C. R. Raleigh and Jacob T. Raleigh and all others in premises in litigation are decreed to be void and groundless.

The premises in question are a part of lot 1, block 124, plat A, Salt Lake city, about 10x20 rods in area. It is also ordered that William H. H. and Alfred Solomon, executors of the estate of Alonzo H. Raleigh, deceased, have judgment as prayed for in their answer against Emily P. Raleigh in the cause brought by her against the plaintiff and all others are decreed to have no interest in the premises.

VERY SERIOUS CHARGES AGAINST T. J. O'BRIEN

Emily J. O'Brien is charged with having her husband in a complaint for divorce filed in the District court yesterday by Minnie O'Brien. The complaint recites that the defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance and has been charged with having come home about 4 o'clock on or about January 15th in an intoxicated condition and ordering the plaintiff out of the house with threats to kill her.

The couple were married November 1903, and have two minor children. Since their marriage the defendant is alleged to have treated the plaintiff in a cruel and inhuman manner.

The defendant is said to keep clubrooms at the Grand Pacific hotel and to have received a sum in excess of $100 a month. The plaintiff asks to be made the owner of the household and to be allowed to have been exonerated by the defendant. It is asked that the mortgage be sold by the plaintiff and the proceeds applied to the sum of $40 per month.

Court Notes. Judge L. Mills was granted a decree of divorce by District Judge Hall yesterday from Cora E. White on the ground of desertion. The parties intermarried in 1894, at Independence, Kan., and the defendant deserted her husband in December, 1895.

A foreclosure suit was filed in the District court yesterday by Carrie Cain against Frederick and Harriet Heath to recover on a promissory note for $1800 due by the defendants. It is asked that the mortgage be sold by the plaintiff and the proceeds applied to the sum of $40 per month.

A Dainty Little Frock.

Simple frocks always are attractive worn by little girls who should never be burdened with over elaborate dress. The pretty one shown is of fine French muslin with yoke of tucking, the epaulettes of tucking edged with lace and trimming of lace bands, but can be reproduced in a dozen materials. All the childish washable fabrics are good while such simple wools as challis, cashmere and the like are admirable for cooler weather, so giving almost limitless variety. Trimming can be embroidery or any of the pretty bandings of the season and, when liked, the epaulettes can be of the material trimmed at their edges. To make the frock for a child of 4 years of age will be required 3 yards of material 27, 24 yards 32 or 14 yards 44-inches wide, with 1/4 yards of tucking for yoke and 1/4 yards for epaulettes. A May Manton pattern, No. 4462, sizes 2 to 6 years, will be mailed to any address by the Fashion department of this paper on receipt of 10 cents.
